

“Future of Professional Regulation in Canada”

April 16 & 17, 2007

Sheraton Gateway Hotel,
Toronto, Canada

The Canadian Network of National Associations of Regulators (CNNAR) is the federation of national organizations whose provincial and territorial members are identified in legislation as responsible for protection of the public through the self-regulation of professions and occupations. We represent over 450,000 individuals across Canada.

Join us for this unique opportunity to learn from others, share information, and network with Canadian regulators and professional associations.

This conference would benefit:

- Staff and board of directors of provincial and national regulatory and professional associations.
- Conference will also be open to individuals interested in the future of professional regulation in Canada.

Conference Topics include:

- Integration of international professionals in Canada
- National and international mobility
- The changing face of the Canadian workplace

Mark the Date: April 16 & 17, 2007

Visit: www.cnnar.ca for conference updates or for more information about CNNAR

