An Act respecting Redeemer Reformed Christian College

Preamble

The board of governors of Redeemer Reformed Christian College has applied for special legislation to change the name of the college to Redeemer University College. The applicant represents that Redeemer Reformed Christian College was incorporated as a degree granting institution by The Redeemer Reformed Christian College Act, 1980 and, under the Redeemer Reformed Christian College Act, 1998, was continued as a degree granting institution and was authorized to grant the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science. The applicant further represents that the Degree Granting Act requires an Act of the Legislature in order for the college to use the word "university" as part of its name.

It is appropriate to grant the application.

Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:

1. The board of governors of Redeemer Reformed Christian College, as continued under the Redeemer Reformed Christian College Act, 1998, may operate and maintain a degree granting institution within the limits of that Act, under the name Redeemer University College.

Authority to use the name Redeemer University College

2. Any reference in an agreement or other document, other than a certificate, degree or diploma awarded or granted before this Act receives Royal Assent, to Redeemer Reformed Christian College shall be deemed to be a reference to Redeemer University College.

References to former name

3. This Act comes into force on the day it receives Royal Assent.

Commencement

4. The short title of this Act is the Redeemer University College Act, 2000.
